

Team:

Hemang Bansal

Sumit Narang

Suresh Kumar

Title:

Instant Grocery Delivery System

Description:

An electronic ordering system where customers can search and order groceries and daily need items from multiple stores in the city and get everything delivered to their doorstep within a day.

Functionality:

- Customer can log in
- Customer can create an account
- Customer can search for items across multiple stores in their city and add to their cart.
- Customers can place order for different items from different stores.
- Customers can pay online.
- Customers can cancel their order, view the status of their order and estimated delivery time.
- Store manager can add or delete its items, associated price and the availability of items.
- Store manager can view the status of payment.
- Admin can log in
- Admin can approve the customers and Stores
- Admin will process the payment.

Stretch Functionality:

- System can recommend items to customers.
- Real time delivery update